

News Release

A brand new multi-media based music ministry is in the works. It began in mid-May 2009. It's called FreedomSong Productions and it's all about God and country. This is an exciting and fast-paced combination of Patriotic/Gospel music and exciting large scale multi-media in a program that is suited for community and civic events as well as the church.

Although a new work, the man who behind this ministry is a veteran, in more ways than one! John Moody is a military veteran and has more than 20 years experience singing gospel music.

John, with more than 8 years in the Air Force and 17 years experience in music ministry with his family says, "My primary goal is to bring back to the attention of our land that America was founded as a Christian nation and that it time to put God back in America again."
